

My client
tried to stick a water
hose up his horse's butt to treat colic.

Well, my client
stuck her finger in her horse's wound to see
how deep it was.

Those clients!
They do the
strangest things!

Are your clients always doing the strangest things before they call you for help?

With Vet2Pet's all-in-one client engagement and communication platform, your clients can download your custom-branded app, and exchange chat messages, photos, videos, and documents with you. Now, you can easily triage horses virtually, and avoid unnecessary house calls or appointments. You save time, horse owners save money, and horses are saved from a lot of unpleasant experiences.
